Call to Worship.....Hymn 126
All Glory, Laud, and Honor by Theodulph of Orleans

1. All glory, laud, and honor,
To Thee, Redeemer, King,
To whom the lips of children
Made sweet hosannas ring:
Thou are the King of Israel,
Thou David's royal Son,
Who in the Lord's name comest,
The King and blessed One.
2. The company of angels
Are praising Thee on high,
And mortal men and all things
Created make reply:
The people of the Hebrews
With palms before Thee went;
Our praise and pray'r and anthems
Before Thee we present.

3. To Thee, before Thy passion
They sang their hymns of praise;
To Thee, now high exalted,
Our melody we raise:
Thou didst accept their praises;
Accept the praise we bring,
Who in all good delightest,
Thou good and gracious King.

Tell Me the Stories of Jesus by William H. Parker

1. Tell me the stories of Jesus I love to hear;
Things I would ask Him to tell me if He were here:
Scenes by the wayside, tales of the sea,
Stories of Jesus, tell them to me.
2. First let me hear how the children stood round His knee,
And I shall fancy His blessing resting on me;
Words full of kindness, deeds full of grace,
All in the love-light of Jesus' face.
3. Into the city I'd follow, there take my stand,
Waving a branch of the palm tree high in my hand;
One of His heralds, yes, I would sing loudest hosannas,
"Jesus is King!"

Children's Lesson.....The Palm Frond and the Rooster

Theme: A study in contrasts for Palm Sunday

Object: Palm fronds and a picture of a rooster

Scripture: John 12:12-13; Luke 22:22-24

Hi kids! Do you know what day today is? It's Palm Sunday! That's why we're carrying palm fronds. When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the people were happy to see Him, so much so that they waved palm fronds as He passed and threw them at His feet. It was the sign of an approaching

King—and in the case of Jesus, it was a celebration that the Messiah—the savior of the world had come in triumph to Jerusalem, the holy city—the city of David.

Everybody wave your palm fronds and shout Hosanna in the Highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!

Let's look at another symbol that was also seen in the Gospel account today: the rooster. What's a rooster got to do with the coming of the Messiah, the King of the Jews? Does anybody know?

The rooster in this story symbolized betrayal—of promising to stick by Jesus no matter what and then “chickening” out when it got tough and scary.

Let's all crow three times: Cock a-doodle-do! Cock a-doodle-do! Cock a-doodle-do!

So we have two symbols today day on Palm Sunday to remind us that we often both celebrate the coming of the Savior of the world and at the same time we turn on Him and betray Him when times get hard.

Which do you do? Praise God and celebrate His coming or do you betray Him by not keeping your promises? I think for all of us we do both, just like Peter and the disciples.

Let's both celebrate by waving palm fronds and then let's remember that we need that Savior forgiveness because we have also denied Him. One half the congregation yell Hosanna in the Highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord, and the other half say cock a-doodle-do, cock a-doodle-do, cock a-doodle-do.

Let's pray: Dear Lord, we humans are an odd people; On one hand we celebrate and praise you and then we often turn around and betray you. Lord, forgive us. Help us to see our sins and repent.

“Man of Sorrow,” What a Name by Phillip P. Bliss

1. "Man of sorrows!" what a name
For the Son of God who came
Ruined sinners to reclaim!
Hallelujah, what a Savior!
2. Bearing shame and scoffing rude,
In my place condemned He stood,
Seal'd my pardon with His blood;
Hallelujah, what a Savior!
3. Guilty, vile, and helpless we,
Spotless Lamb of God was He;
Full atonement! can it be?
Hallelujah, what a Savior!
4. Lifted up was He to die,
"It is finished," was His cry;
Now in heav'n exalted high,
Hallelujah, what a Savior!
5. When He comes, our glorious King,
All His ransomed home to bring,
Then anew this song we'll sing,
Hallelujah, what a Savior!

Hymn of Grace and Assurance.....Hymn 151
The Way of the Cross Leads Home by Phillip P. Bliss

1. I must needs go home by the way of the cross,
There's no other way but this;
I shall ne'er get sight of the gates of light,
If the way of the cross I miss.

Refrain
The way of the cross leads home,
The way of the cross leads home;
It is sweet to know as I onward go,
The way of the cross leads home.
2. I must needs go on in the blood-sprinkled way,
The path that the Savior trod,
If I ever climb to the heights sublime,
Where the soul is at home with God.
Refrain
3. Then I bid farewell to the way of the world,
To walk in it never-more;
For the Lord says, "Come," and I seek my home,
Where He waits at the open door.
Refrain

BenedictionDr. Dew

*May the love of God be the passion in your heart.
May the joy of God be your strength when times are hard.
May the presence of God be a peace that overflows.
May the Word of God grow deep in the soil of your Soul. Amen*
