Wade Parker is the Director of Advancement for the Eastern Region of Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina. Born and raised in Jacksonville, North Carolina, Wade has devoted over two decades to pastoral ministry in Georgia and North Carolina, faithfully serving local churches and sharing the hope of the gospel.

Wade and his wife, Cherry, have been married for nearly 24 years and are the proud parents of three children—Abigail, Samuel, and Ruth. Wade's heart for ministry flows from his calling as a pastor and his passion for seeing children and families experience God's love, stability, and redemption through Christ.
